HELPFUL INFORMATION

1. The best way to schedule an interview with a Caucus member is to reach out to their press secretary. Even if you have a Senator's direct number, it is best to schedule through their media contact to avoid scheduling conflicts, connection difficulties and extended delays.
2. If you are not sure which Senate Democratic member is best to contact on a certain issue, please contact our Communications Director for direction. It is generally best to contact members about topics related to their respective committee assignments or policies they have introduced or spoken on in the past.
3. You can find more information about Senate Democratic members, including biographies and recent press statements, on the official Indiana Senate Democratic Caucus website:
<https://indianasenatedemocrats.org>
4. Headshots of members can also be located and downloaded from the official website under the press tab. At the end of every media release, a headshot will also be included.
5. Reach out to the communications office to be added to the press list so you receive press statements, media advisories, op-eds, etc.
